LADY FINGERS

Faith

Faith is not merely praying,
Upon your knees at night,
Faith is not merely singing
Through darkness to the light

Faith is not merely waiting
For glory that may be,
Faith is not merely hating
The Sinful ecstasy

Faith is the brave endeavor
The splendid enterprise;
The strength to serve,
Conditions may arise.

Household Helps

Keep the waxed paper that comes around bread. Use it to run your iron over before you begin the week's ironing, and see how it smooths off the iron like magic.

Unsteady Screws

If the screws in the door or any other part of the house seem loose and unsteady, take them out, dip them in glue and screw back in before the screw has time to dry.

When aluminum saucepans become badly discolored, cut up and boil in them a few pieces of rhubarb, let stand over night and wash in luke warm water.

Good Things To Eat and how to Make Them

Butterscotch Cookies

4 cups dark brown sugar
1 cup melted shortening
4 beaten eggs
1 teaspoon salt
7 cups pastry flour
3 teaspoons baking powder

Cream shortening with sugar, add eggs slowly mixing thoroughly. Then add dry ingredients sifted together twice, shape into roll 2½ to 3 inches in diameter. Put in greased pan in ice box overnight. When ready to bake slice and bake in hot oven (425°F). This makes about 125 cookies.

Baked Eggs

A nice delicate breakfast dish is eggs, baked with cream, butter and seasoning. Butter the separate little cups of a muffin tin, break an egg into each, cover with two tablespoons of cream, season with salt, pepper, paprika. And butter and bake. They are grand with pop-overs.

Sausage with Baked Apples

6 large red apples, 1 pound sausage, whole cloves. With a sharp knife scoop out the center from the stem end of apples, being careful to remove all seeds. Be sure and do not cut through to other side of the apple. Peel the cored end of the apple ⅓ of the distance down. Stuff the apples very firmly with sausage, stick whole cloves, three or four in the peeled portion of the apple. Place the stuffed apples in an uncovered baking dish and add just enough water to prevent sticking. Bake in moderate oven, (350°F) until the apples are tender. Remove to plates and serve very hot.

Thought for Week

In that noblest of hours, the last supper, the Master lifted the thought of his disciples to behold greatness, not in lordship or in seniority, but in increased service. The pursuit of holy ambition is always a help to those with whom we are associated in our daily occupation, for the spirit of real work is cooperation, not competition.

Holy ambition is calm, pure, courageous, never halting at obstacles, but pressing on to the goal of Godlikeness. The psalmist breathed the spirit of this ambition when he said, "I shall be satisfied, when I awake with thy likeness."
